BANGKOK SIGHTSEEING

A TASTE OF BANGKOK:

- Climb to the top of Wat Saket for spectacular views
- Explore Chatuchak Weekend Market, as big as 5 football fields
- Visit the Suan Lum Night Market for bargains and inexpensive dining
- See American entrepreneur Jim Thompson's house, a fascinating museum
- Take a ride in a tük-tük

River Kwai & Tiger Temple
 Board a long-tailed speedboat to the famous Bridge over the River Kwai. Visit the war cemetery and the JEATH War Museum. After lunch head to the Tiger Temple. The monks take care of tigers from around Thailand, most of them orphans, and permit them to be uncaged and as free as possible. Tour is 9 hours and includes hotel transfers and lunch.

Thai Dinner & Dance Show

This delightful evening introduces you to traditional, mystical dances, Thai food and a truly Thai ambiance. During dinner feast your eyes on the grace and beauty of the dancers who elegantly perform stories from classical Thai literature and folklore. Tour is 2 1/2 hours and includes hotel transfers.

Full Day Ayutthaya Tour

You have a choice of traveling to Thailand's ancient former capital by boat and returning by coach or vice versa. 53 miles north of Bangkok, Ayutthaya was Thailand's capital from 1350 to 1767. Once a thriving international commercial center, today only the ruins remain, including the bronze statues of temples Wat Panangcherg and Wat Chai Mongkol. Tour is 9 hours and includes hotel transfers and lunch.
