HONG KONG SIGHTSEEING

Hong Kong Traditional Lifestyle Tour

Discover how traditional Eastern values live in harmony with Western influences. Begin with a Tai Chi lesson on the waterfront and enjoy views across Victoria Harbor. Visit Lantau Link for views of the world's longest road-and-rail suspension bridge, and learn how the elements of feng shui influence this international city. Continue on to visit a traditional Tea House and watch a tea making demonstration before sampling the famous Kung Fu tea. Tour is 4 hours and departs Monday, Wednesday and Friday.

Shenzhen Adventure

Travel to Shenzhen (China), once a small fishing village, now a modern city. On the way, see Terra Cotta Warriors from the famous excavation site in Xi'an. Spend some time shopping in Shenzhen. The most popular spot is the Lo Wu Commercial building, a mall where prices are about half that of factory outlets. Remember to bargain!

Return to Hong Kong this evening. Mandatory China visitors visa is included. Tour is 10 hours and departs daily.

Lei Yue Mun Cruise & Dinner

Lei Yue Mun Seafood Village, situated on Hong Kong's Eastern Harbor maintains many Chinese traditions, and is known as a seafood paradise. Cruise the harbor on a traditional Chinese sightseeing junk with exciting night views. Disembark at Lei Yue Mun Seafood Village for a brief walk ashore and a sumptuous Chinese dinner at the famous Hoi Tin Garden Restaurant. Tour is 3 hours and departs daily.

Kowloon & New Territories Tour

Travel beyond the city to Wong Tai Sin Temple, the largest Taoist temple in Hong Kong, and gain an insight into Chinese religious beliefs and practices. Visit a rural market and Lok Ma Chau for views over the remarkable skyline of Shenzhen. Continue through the New Territories to the fortified village of Tsang Tai Uk and see the high, thick walls and tall corner towers. Tour is 4 1/2 hours and departs Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday.

Lantau Monastery with Lunch

Cruise by ferry through the Sulphur Channel to Lantau, Hong Kong's largest island, then transfer to the Po Lin Monastery high in the mountains, where a vegetarian lunch will be served by monks. View Asia's tallest outdoor bronze Buddha. See Cheung Sha Beach, Shek Pik Reservoir and Tai O Fishing Village, a rare example of a Chinese stilt-house community. Tour is 8 hours and departs daily.
