Beijing Duck Dinner

Beijing Duck is China's number one specialty meal. This sumptuous dinner will be served at the Qianmen Quanjude Roast Duck Restaurant, which was initially established in 1864 and has sold over 100 million ducks. The meal consists of a delicious selection of hot dishes including roast duck, and a rich duck soup.

Tour is approximately 1 1/2 to 2 hours, and includes private transfers. Departs daily at 6:30pm.

Traditional Chinese Foot Massage

Foot massage is a time-honored practice in China, where it is believed the body's trouble is reflected on the feet. Massaging the acupressure points on the feet quickens blood circulation and can improve general health. Relax and indulge in a 90-minute treatment in gentle surroundings. This massage is highly recommended, especially after you climb the Great Wall. Hotel transfers are included. Departs daily.

Forbidden City, Summer Palace & Temple Of Heaven

This morning you will visit Tiananmen Square, the largest public square in the world. From here you will enter the gates of the Forbidden City, built between 1368 and 1905. In the afternoon, visit the Summer Palace, one of the largest royal gardens in the world. Then visit the Temple of Heaven, where the Imperial Emperors worshipped and prayed for a good harvest. It has a history of over 570 years. Hotel transfers and lunch are included. Tour available by coach or private car.
