

Wellington... don't miss this harbor city

Wellington, the capital of New Zealand, is a compact and well laid out city that combines cultural flair with a stunning harbor. The best way to see the town is on foot, and you can delight in the national treasures such as Te Papa – the national museum of New Zealand, the myriad of restaurants with distinctive local creations and the arts and culture scene.

Unique Places to Stay

WHAREKAUHAU COUNTRY ESTATE is set on a 5,000 acre working sheep station overlooking spectacular Palliser Bay, 90 minutes from Wellington. Choose from a variety of activities or simply indulge in luxury, enjoying superb cuisine and fine wine. Cottages provide privacy and comfort, with a king bed, open fireplace, under-floor heating, deep sofas and a stocked bar. Includes breakfast and dinner.

DUXTON WELLINGTON

★★★★

Perfectly positioned across from the waterfront and Te Papa, the National Museum of New Zealand, and in the cultural hub of this vibrant city. Each superbly appointed room offers views over Wellington Harbour or city. Club rooms and club facilities available. Complimentary guest laundry, internet in all rooms, spacious marble bathrooms, award winning restaurant and bar offering exquisite cuisine.

MAP REF:1

INTERCONTINENTAL HOTEL

★★★★★

Conveniently located opposite the harbor and in the center of Wellington, this hotel has excellent city shopping right on its doorstep and is close to the key attractions. InterContinental Wellington offers 231 stylish, air-conditioned guest rooms. Savor the quality and service of the restaurants and bars. Enjoy the 24-hour gym, heated pool, spa, and sauna.

MAP REF:2

LONGWOOD LODGE welcomes guests in the best English country-house style, located 50 minutes from Wellington in Martinborough. Gorgeous rooms, atmosphere and hospitality make Longwood a special place. Savor delicious meals in the dining room, library, garden or loggia. Features 4 large rooms with private facilities, canopied beds, and fireplaces. Includes breakfast and dinner.

TREASURES OF WELLINGTON

Experience the art and cultural customs of Maori people that form part of a rich heritage, making Aotearoa (New Zealand) unique in the world. Discover a treasured Maori art tradition that spans three centuries. Walk along Wellington's beautiful waterfront and hear legends of sea monsters, Maori warriors and fearsome storms. Visit New Zealand's national museum, Te Papa, which highlights our rich arts, culture and natural history. Tour includes lunch and hotel pickup/drop off.

WILD WELLINGTON

Begin with a walk along Wellington's beautiful waterfront, hearing of Maori legends. A journey to the South Coast takes you across a live fault line and around headlands to visit a colony of fur seals along the spectacular rocky coastline. Enjoy a delicious picnic lunch with stunning views. Walk through New Zealand bush where endangered birds like the Kaka, Kiwi, Saddleback, and Bellbird are regenerating. Take bush trails among the giants of the forest while learning bush lore. Tour's duration is 8 hours.

Unique Experiences

WALKING GOURMET TOUR

Explore the culinary capital with this behind-the-scenes experience. Discover some of the city's best food secrets, places and people, indulging in coffee, chocolate, meat, cheeses and fresh produce. Savor a delicious, three course tasting lunch with New Zealand wines at a top restaurant or café.

